

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

GALES FERRY

W. M. M. Auxiliary Entertained—Observance of Temperance Sunday—Wedding Invitations Received—Surprise Party From Poquoson.

The local auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary society was entertained at the home of Mrs. Andrew Miller at its November meeting on Tuesday afternoon, from 2.30 to 4 o'clock. The president, Miss Sarah L. Lettner, presided. The meeting opened with singing the hymn "Consecration." The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Henry W. Hurlbutt and Miss Laura A. Perkins. Reports of the delegates to the recent general conference of the W. H. M. societies of the N. E. S. conference, held in New London, were given by Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Harmon C. Perkins, who were heard and accepted. They reported the auxiliary as pleading assistance to the Mitchell Home, Browning Home, Plantation work and Providence work. The Missionary Engine was conducted by Miss Lettner. A reading, "Going Up the Mountains," by Mrs. Delphine Fish and one by Miss Alice Perkins entitled, "A Chance, were given. The roll call by Mrs. Lucy A. Hurlbutt, recording secretary was responded to by the names of Homes, under the support of the society.

A social hour followed when the hostess served fruit salad, sandwiches, cake and coffee. Mrs. Rufus W. Hurlbutt and Miss Winnie Bartlett assisted in serving.

False Voices and Hearts.
Rev. James M. Potter spoke in the M. E. church Sunday morning from Genesis 27:23. The second in his series of sermons on the family of Jacob, the theme being False Voices and Hearts.

Temperance Sunday.
The World's Temperance Sunday was observed in place of the regular Sunday school session. The following program was given: Song, by school; One Thousand Yards of Prohibition; prayer, Rev. James M. Potter; responsive reading, Superintendent C. E. Colver and school; recitation, "Forging Ahead," Dorothy Birch; readings, "Way and the Miss Doris; Watchword of Success, Mary Birch; reading, "The Fence or the Ambulance," Madeline Birch; Family History, recitation, by Paul Miller, C. E. Colver; recitations, My Country, by Mr. and Mrs. C. Colver; recitation, "The Bar, Edna Chapman; The Drink For Me, by Helen Louise Colver; My Country and My Kin, Gertrude Allen; offering for temperance work.

Wedding Invitations.
Invitations were received in the village Monday by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albert Apin, to the marriage of their daughter, Helen, and Chester Dean Fonestell on the third of November. The bride and groom will be married at 11 o'clock in the evening at one hundred and forty-five Cottage avenue, Mount Vernon, New York. The bride is the daughter of the first of January at Camarillo, California. Miss Apin is well known in the village where the family have had their summer home for some years.

Surprise Party.
A party of young people from Poquoson came in an automobile last Friday evening to the home of Harold McGuire and gave him and his friend, Harold Hendon a surprise. The party was delightfully received and a pleasant evening was spent.

George T. Meach of Middletown who was spending the week at New London, motored to the home of his sister, Mrs. C. A. Satterlee, and family, Sunday afternoon for a call.

Richard Bracewell of Groton was a recent caller on friends in the place. Mrs. Charles W. Pierce of Albany Point and her sister, Mrs. Charles Winchester, of Norwich, spent last week in New York and Union Hill, N. J.

Mrs. Lucy Hurlbutt closed her home in the village Tuesday and has gone to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. John C. Reynolds, at Bay-ridge, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Hazel Lamb of Ledyard was the week end guest of Miss Elsie McGuire.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harold and Mrs. Catharine of New York were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller at the Davis cottage.

Frank W. Brewster of Norwich

FOURTEENTH YEAR

Attention, Farmers!

DOLLARS BONUS

For Fattest and Biggest Turkey Raised

$10.00

Next Best $5.00

Third $5.00

The Bulletin proposes to capture the three fattest and biggest turkeys to be offered for the Thanksgiving market in Windham and New London Counties.

The turkeys offered for prize must have feathers off, entrails drawn and wings out at first joint. Heads must not be cut off.

The first prize of $10.00 to the largest and fattest young turkey; second prize of $5.00 to the second largest and fattest young turkey; third prize of $5.00 to the largest and fattest turkey raised in New London or Windham Counties.

The contest is open to any man, woman, boy or girl residing in these counties. The turkeys must be submitted for examination and weighing the Tuesday before Thanksgiving at 12 o'clock noon.

For the largest and fattest young turkey $10.00 will be awarded in addition to the market price. This turkey will be given to the Rock Brook Home.

To the raiser of the second young turkey is also a prize of $5.00 in addition to the market price. This turkey will furnish the Thanksgiving dinner for the Shelburne Arms.

To the raiser of the largest and fattest turkey over a year old a prize of $5.00 in addition to the market price. This will go to the County Home for Children for a Thanksgiving dinner.

The judges will be disinterested persons who will weigh the turkeys at Shelburne Arms.

All turkeys that are eligible for competition will be purchased at the market price, no any turkey raised by anyone a bird in the contest is sure of selling at a price as good as any other.

OLD MYSTIC

Capt. Dana T. Gallup Returns From Rio Paso—Cards at Young Men's Association Rooms—Surprise Parties—Parish House Debt Paid.

Rev. Fred B. Coburn, pastor of the Baptist church, preached Sunday morning from the subject, "The Beauty of the Morning." The subject of the morning sermon was "Healing of Our Diseases."

The Baptist Young People's Union held its monthly business meeting and social Friday evening last at the home of Miss Ruth A. Burrows, the president. The first half hour of the evening was devoted to workers' conference conducted by Rev. Fred B. Coburn. Responses were given by every member present with hymns interspersed. Following this service was the business session, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

On Brief Furlough.
Attorney Dana Taylor Gallup of Boston, captain of the First Squadron, Massachusetts Cavalry, C. troop, who has been stationed at Fort Bliss, El Paso, since June, arrived here late on Sunday morning at the home of his mother, Mrs. William Gallup, for a brief visit, not yet being mustered out. The First Squadron arrived Saturday at the William Gallup home in Boston.

Archibald Lambert, president of the Young Men's association, called a special meeting Wednesday evening for the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed, cards being the chief amusement.

Recent Surprise Parties.
Leslie Haley was given a surprise party Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Haley by the following young friends: The Misses Nancy Avery, Fanny Marchand, Fay Johnson, Alice Chesbro, Elsie Strickland, Flora B. Ingram, Annie Packer, Elizabeth Chenevix, Eleanor Burrows and Messrs. Elisha N. Davis, Clifford Deane, Theodore Perry, Everett Boose, Alden Wyckoff, Sylvester MacNeil and Irving Crandall. Music and games were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.

A successful surprise party was enjoyed last Thursday evening at Rocky Hill farm, the home of the Misses Bertha and Elsie Chesbro. Among those present were Misses Jennie Whipple, Violet Watrous, and the Misses Grant, Rockville passed Sunday at their cottage in the grove.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens of New York have been guests of Arthur Saunders and family at the Lloyd cottage in the grove.

Mr. F. A. Aston and maid left last week for their home in Middletown. Ralph Dimmock of the Smith farm is building a small barn for his horses.

Stephen Rowley of the Black Point road passed Sunday in Willimantic. Mrs. Annie R. Brown has returned after several weeks' absence from Boston, Woonsocket, R. I., and Willimantic.

F. A. Aston leaves shortly for his home in Middletown. Herbert Reade and helpers have finished digging a well at the Von Feilitz farm. R. L. Manwaring leaves today (Saturday) for a visit to relatives in Meriden.

Rev. Walter V. Grey and Arthur Saunders, Jr. went to Saybrook last Sunday in Mr. Grey's car. Melville Howard has entered the employ of Contractor K. Beckwith.

Clarence Sweet of Auburn, Me., is passing a few days at the Farmer's house. Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Warner were visitors in the grove Sunday.

Building Garage.
Jared Comstock of the Flanders road is having a garage built on his place. Carpenters from Niantic are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Hartford passed Sunday at their cottage in the grove.

Mr. and Mrs. John Churchill of Bristol spent the week end at their place in the place.

Frank Stevens of Hartford passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevens, in Washington avenue. Mr. Stevens' employment at the Underwood typewriter factory in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hills and Mrs. Kate Simpson of Hartford passed Sunday at their cottages in the grove.

Motored from Norwich.
Mr. and Mrs. R. B. S. Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Tubbs and daughter, Miss Catherine Tubbs, of Norwich, motored to the grove Sunday for a short stay at the Washburn cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Whiting have returned from a visit to Mrs. Whiting's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Elmer, and family in Hartford.

Percy Wheeler has returned from a family trip to the north. Rowley and family were in town Sunday in the village.

SALEM

Church Social Held in Grange Hall—Hunters Staying at the Niles Place.

Rev. John G. Hehr, of Gardner Lake, preached in the Congregational church Sunday morning. The pastor, G. J. Murray was the leader of the service. S. C. E. meeting Sunday evening.

Miss Eunice Graves returned to her home in Williamsburg, Mass., last week after spending several days in town.

Mr. and Mrs. William Darling, Mrs. Helen Malone and Miss Alice Rix visited relatives in Canaan, Sunday. Boothby state in-law, Mrs. C. I. Beebe was a caller in Norwich Saturday.

Mrs. Richard Lee, with her daughter, Miss Dora Lee and son, spent Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Beebe.

Church Social.
A church social was held in Grange Hall Thursday evening. The speakers were Mr. and Mrs. James Beebe's sons, Mr. and Mrs. James Beebe's sons, Mr. and Mrs. James Beebe's sons.

The members of the L. B. S. met Wednesday evening at the packed mission boxes under the direction of Mrs. A. W. Bunnell, who is greatly interested in the cause.

Appointed Alternates.
The Equal Franchise League met Monday afternoon and appointed alternates to the convention at New Haven, Thursday and Friday. Two of the delegates were unable to attend on account of illness.

EAST COLCHESTER
A large crowd attended the two days' auction at Susan Patten's on Tuesday and Wednesday. Cattle sold at an average of $10.00 per head. Meyer and Havy Paley are home from New York.

Charles F. Kramer has a bed of

NORWICH BULLETIN, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1910

erecting stonehenge and has been enjoying ripe fruit.
Misses Alice and Orson Mahoney were guests of their sister, Mrs. J. B. Mahoney, at her dinner in Preston.

Local strangers attended the regular meeting of the Young Men's association at the election of officers was held. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Case and children were visitors here Sunday.

The first snow of the season was visible here Monday. This coating of ice was noticed on the quiet places of the grove.

C. B. Edmonston and party from Norwich Town were here on a hunting trip this week.

NIANTIC

Two Aeroplanes—Fly Over Groves—Motor Party from Norwich—Dr. and Mrs. Warner Going South.

Some of the village people had the pleasure of seeing two aeroplanes pass over Niantic bay Sunday. The machines were flying about 5000 feet high and could be plainly seen.

Harry Perkins has entered the employ of the Pelot. He is heading out to the freight yard from the north part of the town.

James Perkins is with his father, doing team work.

Consul George Eager of Norwich was the guest of his brother, Louis Eager, in the grove last week.

Men have finished doing carpenter work on the Belknap cottage.

Wild Geese Notes.
A flock of wild geese passed over Wallace Wednesday forenoon. There were about 25 in the flock.

George W. Pierce of Springfield, Mass., was a visitor in the grove Sunday. Mr. Pierce was living here.

Going South.
Dr. and Mrs. Everett S. Warner will leave shortly for New York, where they will remain a month before going south for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beebe have returned from their former home in Rocky Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spafford of Haven passed Sunday at their cottage in the grove. They came over in their car.

Mrs. Grant of Rockville passed Sunday at their cottage in the grove.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens of New York have been guests of Arthur Saunders and family at the Lloyd cottage in the grove.

Mr. F. A. Aston and maid left last week for their home in Middletown. Ralph Dimmock of the Smith farm is building a small barn for his horses.

Stephen Rowley of the Black Point road passed Sunday in Willimantic. Mrs. Annie R. Brown has returned after several weeks' absence from Boston, Woonsocket, R. I., and Willimantic.

F. A. Aston leaves shortly for his home in Middletown. Herbert Reade and helpers have finished digging a well at the Von Feilitz farm. R. L. Manwaring leaves today (Saturday) for a visit to relatives in Meriden.

Rev. Walter V. Grey and Arthur Saunders, Jr. went to Saybrook last Sunday in Mr. Grey's car. Melville Howard has entered the employ of Contractor K. Beckwith.

Clarence Sweet of Auburn, Me., is passing a few days at the Farmer's house. Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Warner were visitors in the grove Sunday.

Building Garage.
Jared Comstock of the Flanders road is having a garage built on his place. Carpenters from Niantic are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Hartford passed Sunday at their cottage in the grove.

Mr. and Mrs. John Churchill of Bristol spent the week end at their place in the place.

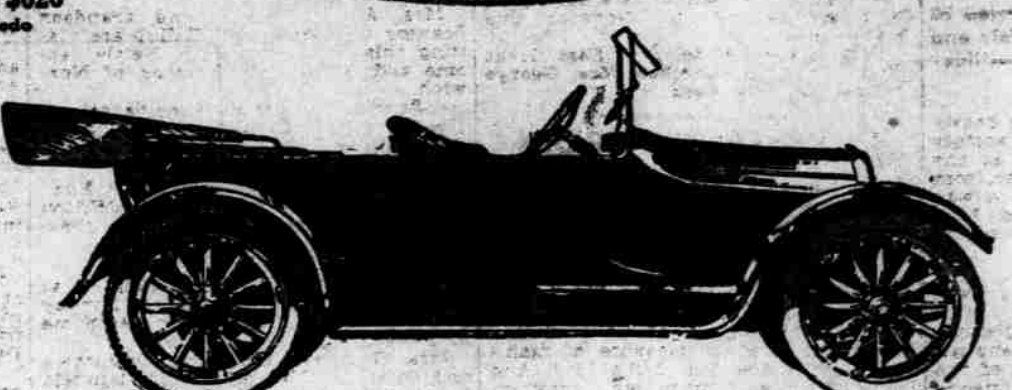

Frank Stevens of Hartford passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevens, in Washington avenue. Mr. Stevens' employment at the Underwood typewriter factory in that city.

$635

Passenger Touring Car
Roadster $620
Toledo

Overland

Model 75 B

31 1/2
Horsepower

Speedy and Easy Riding

There's little comfort in most low priced cars. You can't use their speeds. They jostle you—they ride roughly—they don't hold the road.

The $635 Overland is different. It is not only the speediest of low priced cars—

But you can use the full speed of its powerful motor when you need it.

M. B. RING, AUTO COMPANY
Phone 1290 21 Chestnut Street, Norwich, Conn.

The Willys-Overland Company, Toledo, Ohio
"Made in U.S.A."

LEDYARD

Supper Given by Ladies' Aid Society—Clears $25—Jailer O. H. Main of Norwich Buys His Farm Back.

The Ladies' Aid society held the fourth church supper of the season at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gray Friday evening. This was one of the most successful suppers yet given, nearly 100 percent, many coming from Norwich. The receipts were about $25.

The next supper will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Finnigan.

Miss Stella Holdridge has been the guest of Mrs. E. E. Holdridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spafford of Haven passed Sunday at their cottage in the grove.

Mrs. Grant of Rockville passed Sunday at their cottage in the grove.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens of New York have been guests of Arthur Saunders and family at the Lloyd cottage in the grove.

Mr. F. A. Aston and maid left last week for their home in Middletown. Ralph Dimmock of the Smith farm is building a small barn for his horses.

Stephen Rowley of the Black Point road passed Sunday in Willimantic. Mrs. Annie R. Brown has returned after several weeks' absence from Boston, Woonsocket, R. I., and Willimantic.

F. A. Aston leaves shortly for his home in Middletown. Herbert Reade and helpers have finished digging a well at the Von Feilitz farm. R. L. Manwaring leaves today (Saturday) for a visit to relatives in Meriden.

Rev. Walter V. Grey and Arthur Saunders, Jr. went to Saybrook last Sunday in Mr. Grey's car. Melville Howard has entered the employ of Contractor K. Beckwith.

Clarence Sweet of Auburn, Me., is passing a few days at the Farmer's house. Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Warner were visitors in the grove Sunday.

Building Garage.
Jared Comstock of the Flanders road is having a garage built on his place. Carpenters from Niantic are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Hartford passed Sunday at their cottage in the grove.

Mr. and Mrs. John Churchill of Bristol spent the week end at their place in the place.

Frank Stevens of Hartford passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevens, in Washington avenue. Mr. Stevens' employment at the Underwood typewriter factory in that city.

ing meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society was held with Mrs. Mattie Robinson, a former member of the society, at her home in Jewett City.

Dual Birthday Celebration.
Miss Ruth Kennedy was surprised by about thirty friends Friday evening who came to help celebrate her birthday. It was also the birthday of her younger brother, Roy. A delightful evening was passed with games and music. Sandwiches, cake, coffee and chocolate were passed. In behalf of the company Charles Budett, Jr. presented Miss Kennedy a gold bracelet and Royal Kennedy a watch and fob. Besides these there were other gifts from individuals.

Mrs. Maxwell Reynolds and little son of Danbury are spending several weeks at the parsonage.

W. S. Foote has been in Wilton for a visit with his mother. The trip was made by automobile with his son, Raymond Foote of Bridgeport.

Mrs. August Hoelck and daughter Mildred went to Springfield Thursday for a visit with relatives.

LEBANON

Dance in Grange Hall Well Attended—Speakers from Norwich at C. E. Rally—Dr. Wallace Sweet to Address C. E. Meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Noyes and daughter, Mabel, and Mrs. Henry Hawitt motored to Hartford last week Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lillie entertained Sunday Mrs. E. C. Lillie, Mrs. Jane Card, Mrs. Lillie of Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Lillie and daughter, Arlene, of this place, Misses Amy and Alice Lillie, of Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lillie of North Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Brigham of Hartford passed Saturday with Miss E. B. Huntington.

Move to Willimantic.
Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Stark and daughter, Geneva, have moved their household goods to Willimantic where they are to live.

Many at Dance.
A dance was given in the Grange hall on Friday evening, people coming from many directions. Lyman's orchestra furnished music. Professor Congdon was promoter.

Mrs. E. A. Hoxie spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Manning of Yantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bannister of Norwich State Hospital were weekend guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Blakelee.

Miss Florence Madley has gone to live with Miss Hattie E. Hewitt, as a companion for the winter.

Mrs. Albert C. Hoxie spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Manning of Yantic.

Returns to Massachusetts.
Mrs. Ella Mason has returned to her home in Massachusetts after spending the summer at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Danforth.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo A. Boothby spent Sunday in Rockville, guests of Mrs. Boothby's sister-in-law, Mrs. Boothby remained for a week's visit. Many from this place attended the Willimantic C. E. union meeting at Hebron Saturday.

Miss Mabel K. Noyes is the guest of Miss Bertha Perry of New London.

Speakers From Norwich.
Friday evening the Baptist church held a C. E. rally in the parlors. There were 100 present, coming from many places. The speakers were Rev. George H. Strouse of the First Baptist church of Norwich and Earle Stamm of the cemetery here.

Ice cream were served.

Miss Virginia Loomis spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Warner of North Franklin.

Dr. Sweet to Speak.
Dr. Wallace Sweet is to address the C. E. meeting Sunday evening on Y. M. C. A. work at New York city.

Mrs. Martha Pendleton has returned after spending some time with her niece, Mrs. Harold S. Maine of Windham.

ASHWILLETT

Otto Anderson has made many changes on the Thomas Main property, which he recently purchased.

Mrs. Ida Ecclestone, from Glasgow, has had stones erected to the memory of her husband and little daughter in the cemetery here.

Grover C. Main entertained hunters from Westerly the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ray, of Grange Hall, North Stonington, Wednesday evening, given by the elected representatives of the town.

Wednesday morning began with the first snow of the season, after which there will be Indian summer.

The annual rice production of Japan has reached the 250,000,000 bushel mark.

Windham County

ELMVILLE

Relief Corps Presents Gift to Mrs. Frank Davis, at Danielson Meeting.

Mrs. B. C. Conklin visited friends in Webster last week.

Harry Brancham of Pawtucket, R. I. has been spending a few days at Grassmere farm.

Mrs. Frank A. Davis entertained Mrs. Chase and daughter of Putnam Friday, and on Sunday friends from New London and Hampton.

Mrs. Crane of Willimantic has been the guest of Mrs. C. H. Pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Colwell visited in Taunton and Mansfield, Mass., Sunday, making the trip by automobile.

Miss Nellie Place spent the week end in Central Village.

John Winslow and Everett Winslow of Jefferson, Mass., former residents of Elmville, have been visiting relatives here.

Dennis Hanson was a Norwich visitor last week.

Mrs. Betsy Spears of Foster Center has been the guest of Mrs. Clayton Wright and Mrs. Addie E. Call.

Elsie Myers, who has been ill for several weeks, is recovering.

Gift For Mrs. Davis.
At the sewing circle meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps, held with Mrs. Sarah B. Torrey in Danielson, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. C. A. Davis of this place was presented a handsome emerald pin set with pearls, in recognition of the work recently given by the corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Babbitt of Danbury visited at C. D. Mowry's, Sunday.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY
Forestry Meeting—Consul George Chamberlain Home from Guinea.

A Forestry Field meeting was held here Tuesday at the chapel, W. C. Filley, state forestry, spoke ably on the subject of Pines. James V. Perrin of Ottawa, Canada, gave a little talk on the subject of the season of the Logs Down Stream in Canada.

Consul and Mrs. George Chamberlain of British Guinea are guests at the former's brother, E. L. Chamberlain and family. The two Mrs. Chamberlains are sisters.

Miss Florence and Louise Kenyon are visiting their aunt in Putnam this week.

WESTFORD

Capt. H. A. Eastman of Middletown has been in town two weeks, boarding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lincoln of New Haven spent the week-end at their summer home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo A. Boothby visited the Thred City, Wednesday.

Mrs. Clarence H. Sarlow and little daughter, Edna, are spending several days with friends in Hartford.

Mrs. Jennie Barlow and Gladys Barlow are in Southbridge for an indefinite stay, the guests of Mr. Ralph Thompson.

A number from here attended the picnic at the home of Frank Morey's Saturday evening. About one hundred were present.

POMFRET CENTER

Everett E. Brown Judge of Plate Exhibit at Rhode Island Fruit Show.

Everett E. Brown attended the Rhode Island fruit show in Providence last week as judge of plate exhibits.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Brown motored to Providence Wednesday afternoon, the automobile show and The Merry Wives of Windsor at Providence opera house.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott motored to Worcester last Sunday.

</